Hoe Grange Farm

Hoe Grange Farm, the home of the Brown family, offers you a relaxing holiday to remember - a real home from home in the spectacular Derbyshire countryside, close to Carsington Water, Dovedale and Chatsworth. The farm adjoins the High Peak Trail making it an excellent base for all outdoor activities:

- Caving
- Climbing
- Walking
- Bird watching
- Cycling
- Water sports
- Painting
- Photography

A fantastic rural retreat, offering four self catering 2/3 bedroom log cabins. Open all year, short breaks available. An ideal location for larger groups or family gatherings of up to 26 people. Children welcome to help feed the farm animals.

Relax and unwind under the stars in our traditional log-fired Swedish hot tub (additional charge).

Bring your own horse on holiday to Hoe Grange. Imagine yourself with miles of safe off-road riding with superb undulating limestone scenery and open fields to canter through. The Pennine Bridleway/High Peak Trail is just 500 metres from the stables and is easily accessed from the farm fields.

Stabling is generally DIY but if you want a real holiday, why not let us do the hard work and muck out for you?

Evening meals, pack lunches and delicious Farmhouse take away breakfasts available by arrangement.

After a long day's riding your horse can kick up its heels and graze in one of our paddocks, or rest in the stable, whilst you relax in our luxurious log cabins, or soak away any stresses and strains in our Swedish hot tub.

- Grazing in 4 large paddocks
- Spacious stabling for up to 6 horses
- Hay and straw bedding included - haylage & shavings available at additional cost
- Ample parking for horse box/trailers
- Secure tack storage, with saddle racks, rug racks and basic tack box
- Wheelbarrows, mucking out forks and yard brushes
- Emergency access to farrier and vet

Walking routes and mountain bike hire for non riders.
